

22nd National Immunisation Conference for Health Care Workers on Friday, 2nd December 2011
at the Manchester Conference Centre

Registration from 8.00 a.m. – Refreshments and Exhibition Stands in Weston Room 1

–

8.15 – 8.50 a.m. “Meet the Expert” Breakfast Session in the Cockcroft Theatre

Breakfast Session – Cockcroft Theatre

Chair – Dr Ken Lamden

Professor Liz Miller

How the New 13-Valent Pneumococcal Vaccine is performing

WESTON THEATRE

9.00 a.m. Introduction by Dr David Baxter, Consultant in Communicable Disease Control

Chair - Professor Liz Miller

9.10 a.m. Mrs Jo Yarwood – Vaccine Management Issues

9.35 a.m. Dr Tim Brooks – How to Make a Vaccine

10.00 a.m. Dr Mary Ramsay – What’s New – Schedules and Vaccines?

10.25 a.m. Professor Ray Borrow – Herd Immunity – Concept & Implication of Vaccine Programmes

10.50 a.m. Refreshments and Exhibition Stands in Weston Room 1

Chair - Professor Eric Bolton

11.10 a.m. Dr David Elliman – Anti-Vaccination Movements Over the Years

11.35 a.m. Dr Paul Heath - Importance of Booster Vaccinations

12.00 noon Dr Matthew Helbert – When Antigens Turn Us Off

12.25 p.m. Professor Freda Stevenson – Cancer Vaccines – Where are we now?

12.50 p.m. Professor Tony Heagerty – Cardiovascular Disease and Immunisation

1.15 p.m. Lunch and Exhibition Displays in Weston Room 1

1.55 p.m. Professor Carol Baxter – Personal, Fair and Diverse – Implications for Immunisation Services

2.10 p.m. All delegates move to Mini-Symposia

Symposium 1 - Weston Theatre: From Birth to Senescence

Chair - Professor Eric Bolton

2.15 p.m. Dr Peter Arkwright - Development of Immune Responses in the Foetus and Infant

2.40 p.m. Dr Jamie Findlow – Men B Vaccines

3.05 p.m. Refreshments and Exhibition Displays in Weston Room 1

3.25 p.m. Professor Richard Aspinall – Immunosenescence – Implications for Vaccination in Older People

3.50 p.m. Dr Loretta Brabin – What HPV Vaccination has Taught us in Respect of Adolescent Immunisation

4.15 p.m. Dr Stephen Hughes - The Sub-Saharan Meningitis Belt – a Problem of Nature or Nurture?

4.40 p.m. Questions and Closing Remarks

4.45 p.m. Close

Symposium 2 – Cockcroft Theatre: Service Related, Travel and Practice Nurse Issues

Chair – Dr Sam Ghebrehewet

2.15 p.m. Mrs Jo Yarwood - The Cold Chain

2.40 p.m. Mrs Sarah Lang - Minimising Pain Associated with Immunisations

3.05 p.m. Mrs Carolyn Driver - Best Injection Practice

3.30 p.m. Refreshments and Exhibition Displays in Weston Room 1

3.50 p.m. Dr Mike Stone – Immunising Sportsmen and Women Prior to Competing Abroad

4.15 p.m. Ms Cate Riley - Running a Travel Vaccine Clinic – How to Do It

4.40 p.m. Questions and Closing Remarks

4.45 p.m. Close

This event is supported by educational grants from Crucell, Glaxo Smith Kline, Novartis, Pfizer Vaccines, Sanofi Pasteur MSD and Johnson and Johnson